

NICA

Coach Manual

Starting, Managing & Coaching a High School
Mountain Bike Team

SIXTH EDITION

NATIONAL INTERSCHOLASTIC
CYCLING ASSOCIATION

CONTENTS

1. An Overview of High School Mountain Biking

Why Mountain Biking?	8
Why Start a Mountain Bike Program at Your School?	11
Role of the National Interscholastic Cycling Association	12

2. Working With the School Administration

The Different Models	14
Get the School Administration on Board	16
Addressing Possible School Requirements	18

3. Being a Successful & Responsible Coach

Developing Your Coaching Philosophy & Style	20
Roles of the Coach	21
What your Riders Want from You as Their Coach	22
Postive Coaching Alliance and the Double Goal Coach	23
SafeKids and Mandatory Reporting	23

4. Essentials for Starting a Team

How to Start a Mountain Bike Program	25
Structuring your Mountain Bike Program	30
Team Administration and Management	31
Fundraising	35
Sponsorship	37

5. Risk Management, Safety & Insurance Concerns

First Steps	40
Forms, Waivers & Insurance	41
Preparing Riders, Coaching Staff & Volunteers	43
Now You're Ready to Go Out and Ride	44
Responding to an Incident	46

6. Running a Healthy Youth Program

Set Yourself up for Success!	47
Understanding Youth Development	48
Sensitivity to Diversity	49
Engaging & Motivating Youth	50
Addressing Challenging Behavior	51
Quality Youth Programs: The Ingredients	51

7. Equipment & Clothing

The Bicycle	54
The Helmet	56
Pedals	58
Eyewear	58
Sunscreen	60
NICA Equipment Rules for Racing	61

8. Skills Instruction

Foundations of Successful Instruction	62
Promoting Safety through Skills Instruction	64
Giving a Mountain Bike Lesson	64
The Basic Skills Lessons	65

9. Ensuring Proper Bike fit

Preparing to Fit a Bike	81
Cleats / Foot Position	81
Handlebar Width, Reach & Drop	83
Controls	84
Closing	84

10. Coaching Girls
Recruiting Girls	86
Making Sure Girls Stick With It	87
Co-Ed Groups & When Girls are a Minority	87
Male Coaches/Female Riders	88
Body Image & Self Esteem	89
Social & Emotional Needs	90
Eating Disorders	91
11. Training Considerations
Implementing a Training Program	94
Typical Periods of Training	95
Off-the-Bike Conditioning	97
Leading Rides	97
Team Workout Menu	100
Preventing Burnout	104
Stationary Bike Workouts	105
12. Off-The-Bike Conditioning
Warm-Up	109
Pre-Season Workout	110
In-Season Workout	112
Rainy Day Indoor Workout	114
13. Proper Nutrition & Hydration
Importance of Proper Nutrition	115
Adolescent Eating Behaviors	115
Food Groups	116
Healthy Eating: Nutrition Tips for Eating Right	117
Proper Hydration	120
Sample Recipes	125
14. Coaching Core Mental Skills to Youth
Teens, Development, and Sports		129
The Five Core Skills		130
15. Competition & Racing
Our Philosophy on Competition		133
Race Eligibility, Divisions, and Categories		134
The Races		135
16. Working with Parents & Guardians
Getting Parent Involved		141
Communicating with Parents		143
Dealing with Challenging Parents		144
Recognizing Parent Contributions		145
Positive Coaching Alliance and the Second-Goal Parent		145
17. Working with Volunteers
Benefits of Volunteer Participation		146
Volunteer Recruitment		146
Making it Work		147
Volunteer Expectations		147
Volunteer Requirements and Legal Issues		148
18. Partnerships & Collaborations
Trail Stewardship & Advocacy Groups		149
Local Bike Shops		149
Local Businesses		150
Bringing in Professionals as Special Guests		151